Song Story

My brother David and I used to have fun playing the “echo” game... though we couldn't figure out why Mom and Dad thought we were really fighting, since we never called each other names like D.J. and Nate do in the “opening act” of this song.

One day I was reflecting on the key verse for DiDoReflections and thinking of all my own faults (cracks) and how I don't reflect God. It suddenly dawned on me that God would be displeased to hear me really believing my thoughts about how stupid I was to take so long to learn something.

About how dumb it was to care so much about my appearance. God's Holy Spirit Himself will help us to grow to reflect Him -- when we respectfully (and honestly) ask Him to. 2nd Corinthians 3:18. And when God's glory shines through us, people will see God -- not our human cracks!

“But we all, with unveiled face, beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the Lord.”
-- 2nd Corinthians 3:18 (the theme verse for DiDoReflections)

Child 2:

Let's play outside.	repeats
We can play ball.	repeats
Stop copying me.	repeats
STOP IT!	repeats
You're stupid.	repeats
You're ugly.	repeats
Your daddy doesn't love you.	“ DA---DDY !”
