READINGS DURING THE STORM (with a music pause between each Read the scripture reference at the end of each reading of Jesus's promise to us.)

Jesus said, "In this WORLD you will have tribulation, but be of good cheer:
I have overcome the world." -- John 16 verse 33

Jesus said, "In this world YOU will have tribulation, but be of good cheer:
I have overcome the world." -- John 16 : 33

Jesus said, "In this world you will have TRIBULATION, but be of good cheer:
I have overcome the world." -- John 16 : 33

Jesus said, "In this world you will have tribulation, but be of good CHEER:
I have overcome the world." -- John 16 : 33

Jesus said, "In this world you will have tribulation, but be of good cheer:
I ... I I, have overcome the world." -- John 16 : 33

READING AFTER VERSE 2: (during storm music)

No matter WHERE we are, whatever the storm, Jesus CAN still do what He promised in John 16:33. Jesus STILL overcomes whatever the world tries to pound against you -- even hurricane strength tribulations and thundering sorrows....

Song Story. The MUSIC: I literally sat at my home studio keyboard controller and was just "playing" with various chord progressions when this music began to "unfold." In a few hours. This is God's beautiful work.... I just developed His wonderfully creative ideas.

The LYRICS: Not surprisingly, this song was written during a series of dangerously fierce thunderstorms, rather unusual in December in this part of the world. Verse 2 was written after the Day of the Tornadoes, when I was in Alabama (April 2011). -- Since the power had gone off hours earlier -- we were sure the storms were OVER at 2 PM, and we went shopping for food supplies. The worst storms hit less than an hour after we safely got back to our sheltering house. We've talked to other people -- Most did NOT know that worse storms were coming. And -- in our lives-- we never know. But God is ALWAYS waiting to shelter us. Matt. 23: 37 has a beautiful picture of Jesus's welcoming arms for you.

More than that.... this was a song gift from God during a HURRICANE within my heart... As I wrote and prayed AMID the storm outside me and the storm within me, God brought this to mind:--- No matter where we are, whatever the storm, Jesus CAN and WILL still do what He promised in John 16:33: Jesus still overcomes whatever the world tries to pound against us. Even YOUR, your..... hurricane tribulations and thundering sorrows.
