“This letter is from Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I have been sent to proclaim faith to those God has chosen and to teach them to know the truth that shows them how to live godly lives.

This truth gives them confidence that they have eternal life, which God—who does not lie—promised them before the world began. And now at just the right time he has revealed this message, which we announce to everyone. It is by the command of God our Savior that I have been entrusted with this work for Him.” -- Titus 1: 1, 2, 3. New Living Translation

NOTES: For shorter worship song, use Verses 1, 4, and 5 (Parts A and B for each).
 PART 1 introduction to original DianaDee music is based on Public Domain hymn, LORD SPEAK TO ME THAT I MAY SPEAK, by Frances Havergal & Robert Schumann, CCLI # 103391; revised & original lyrics.

For when you are afraid that you won't "know what to say" to people:

JESUS promises you in Luke 12:11-12: "...do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say. For the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

Song Story. Lyrics were written alone at the altar as an actual prayer on 26 August 2010.

Basic music was written within a few hours that same day.

But over a year passed and I had not gotten back to recording this song. Then someone commented to me about being a prophet. I decided to check my journal, remembering that I had prayed (humbly, with some fear that it was a wrong prayer), ever since writing Christmas Redemption Blues (April 2010). I was surprised to find this completed song.... already with five verses and almost ready to record. The addition of the old hymn was a new creative touch, though.... perhaps God was waiting for me to develop my desire for blending old hymns with new music before He guided me to my journal notes:)

John 3: 36 (last verse) -- "He who believes in the Son has everlasting life; and he who does not believe the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abides on him."

John 5:40 -- Jesus: "But you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life."
