VERSE 1 & 5

God Who forgives sin,	heals and life redeems... FOR AS

CHORUS (For as)

High as the heavens
is God's __ mercy _ to all those who love and

Bless the LORD my soul,	God who is loving,
God Who crowns you with	Kindness and mercy,
God Who satisfies	you with all good things
so that your youth is	renewed like the eagle! FOR AS >>CHORUS

God removes your sins	when you ask Him to,
as far as the east	is away from the far west.
God our Father has	pity on us all.
He knows all our frame,	remembers we're dust FOR AS >>CHORUS

Our lives are like grass,	on this earth, they pass.
But the LORD our God	gives mercy that's everlasting,

Song Story, 30 October 2011. The Garageband recording program says the weird instrument is a clavinet. I have no idea what that is.... I just liked it. Sounds like one of those mountain men's band instruments where someone else is blowing into a jug.

Claxton Wilson, who serves our LORD as my drummer for live drum tracks (and for slap bass... I specialize in slide bass) was amused when I brought him this project with my prepared percussion track saying, “HEY I GOT IN SOME BONGOS TOO!”

This is yet one more of those “don't ask me where I got the idea, I don't know” ... except has to “be God” songs..... At least, I don't believe our Creative God minds getting credit for such a weird song! Nothing like it in the hymnal song records I've heard! By the way -- the entire song took about 8 minutes to write.... complete with the weird chord progressions “in my head”... with our Great Holy Spirit's Ephesians 3:20-style empowering, of course, for His Ephesians 3:21 and More GLORY. Perhaps 2 hours at the most to record all the instrument tracks. It's God.
