Song Story.

This song is one of God's exciting answers to my prayers to put His original songs (psalms) into new music for His people. It was written so quickly on guitar that it doesn't really have a "story" except for this one:

Many centuries ago, God guided the Psalmist David to write words that these almost match. God guided me to form them into another musical format in this 21st century. In all the years before and after David, in all the years after me God was and will be the same, even as the music of His words change. What an EXCITING, amazing God He is!

Hebrews 13: 8,

"Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today, and for ever."

"For there are 3 that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these 3 are One."
