Song Story: THE LYRICS.

The repeated, yet never boring, song story is this: I sat down with my New KJV Bible and special Psalm journal with a prayer for God's guidance in putting another of His Psalms-through-David into modern music. turned to Psalm 33, and the lines just fell into place. Notice how often the lines fell into RHYME.

That's God, certainly not genius from my end. Revelation 22:6 ....“These words are trustworthy and true. The Lord, the God who inspires the prophets, sent his angel to show his servants the things that must soon take place.” When God has a Word to share, He inspires someone to share it. That someone can just as easily be you if you choose to humbly ask Him to serve Him sharing His Word.

Jesus promised YOU, us all, in John 16:13: “...when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears [from God the Father] He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.”

Song Story: THE MUSIC.

The music was really easy to create at the keyboard. It took longer to write out the notes. Especially for that chord marked “D [keyboard: E F# A C ]”..... I STILL have no idea what that chord idea from God is named! What took longest, though, was figuring out a fast joyful pace that would give time for singers to fit in all of Psalmist David's Words. I think that, with God's empowering, this psalm of His praise came out to be a song that's really fun to sing!
