Song Story. Not surprisingly, this song was inspired while I was at a restaurant during a music festival trip, eating alone. I was watching others and noticing how many parents were completely ignoring their children, chatting on cell phones. There were couples talking separately on phones, ignoring their companions. I was wishing my husband were there for us to talk with each other--- and these persons were ignoring the gift persons God had shared with them. And then I got to thinking about how many times I've been praying and suddenly remembered something (or the phone rang), and I left knees even without apologies to God, to go do whatever had come into my mind to immediately do instead... :{ with apologies to Him now.....
